

Prepositions of Time and Place

TIME

- in a year, a month, or a week (for a specific event):
in 1993 in June in the first week
Example: I passed the exam in June 1993.
- during a year, a month, or a week (for action spread over time):
during 1993 during June Example: I studied during April and May.
- in a period of the day:
in the morning in the afternoon
but at night at noon
- on a specific day:
on Wednesday on March 20
- at a specific time:
at 3 p.m. at dawn at dinner time

PLACE

- in a country, province, city:
in Canada in Vancouver
- on a street:
on West 14th St. on the highway
- at a specific location:
at home at the University at Metrotown
- in a specific location surrounded by something else:
in the bedroom in the cupboard in the park