CONGRATULATIONS

PAUL DANGERFIELD

President & Vice-Chancellor

From the day you joined Capilano University as a student, you have been on an extraordinary journey. You have embraced new and dynamic ways of learning while engaging with ideas from a diverse community of students and instructors. With your family and friends, I applaud your hard work and accomplishments.

As you take the final steps across the convocation stage, you are embarking on an exciting future that is filled with optimism and opportunity. I hope your CapU experience has given you a sense of pride in your accomplishments and readiness to venture forward into new challenges and experiences.

Like the network of alumni who came before you, I encourage you to fully engage with a world that needs your ideas, talent and leadership. Most importantly, I hope you will answer the call to serve with compassion. May curiosity inspire imaginative approaches in everything you do.

Enjoy your future success.

Paul Dangerfield
President & Vice-Chancellor
Capilano University

YURI FULMER

Chancellor

With admiration and tremendous pride, we celebrate you, the Class of 2022. Graduating this year is a triumphant milestone: not only have you achieved your credential through concerted effort, you persevered through a global pandemic to do so.

As chancellor, I am honoured to recognize your achievements at Capilano University. Along with your family and friends, we commend your learning journey and offer our collective pride for all that you have achieved.

The future is full of hope, and as a graduate of CapU, you are better equipped to navigate the challenges and opportunities to come. I encourage you to leverage the knowledge you have gained, the skills you have learned and the relationships you have made as you forge ahead. May you embrace the future with confidence.

As you embark on your next step, I believe that you—the next generation of creative thinkers and leaders—are well prepared to help us find the solutions that will transform our world for the better.

Best wishes,

Yuri Fulmer, OBC
Chancellor
Capilano University

BRITTANY BARNES

Chair, CUAA

On behalf of the Capilano University Alumni Association (CUAA), it is my pleasure to congratulate you on your academic and personal achievements. We are so proud to welcome another graduating class of CapU alumni into our community.

Today, you join a diverse and talented network with a global reach of more than 95,000 CapU alumni. As you enter this new chapter, we want you to know that the CUAA is here to support you through lifelong learning, professional development and exclusive alumni benefits. In fact, your CapU journey does not end here; it continues through the CUAA.

We encourage you to stay connected by making sure we have your most recent contact information, and by learning about the CUAA and how we can help you continue to thrive (visit capilano.ca/alumni). By being an active member of the CUAA, you can take advantage of your new global network of colleagues, community members and friends.

Once again, congratulations on successfully completing your journey from student to alumni. We hope you keep in touch!

Warm regards,

Brittany Barnes
Chair
Capilano University Alumni Association

BRIDGET STRINGER-HOLDEN

Bachelor of Communication Studies
with a Minor in Business Administration

Faculty of Business & Professional Studies

After four wonderful years at Capilano University, Bridget Stringer-Holden—a recipient of the Capilano Excellence entrance scholarship—is graduating with a Bachelor of Communication Studies with a Minor in Business Administration.

Bridget was involved in many extracurricular activities, holding positions at the Capilano Courier, the CapU Senate, the Capilano Students' Union Board of Directors and the International Business Association. Bridget grew her editorial experience as the Capilano Courier's news editor and as the editor of the School of Communication March Magazine. She was also awarded the Lucille Fisher Memorial Scholarship, recognizing outstanding performance in communication courses.

Along the way, she made a lot of friends and discovered her love of journalism. As cliché as it sounds, Bridget's advice to everyone is to get out there and try things. Despite being one of those students in first year who simply went to class and then went home, and despite her social anxiety, putting herself out there and getting involved was the best thing Bridget ever did. It's this advice that she will carry with her as she pursues a master's degree in journalism at UBC in the fall.

Bridget would like to thank her friends, instructors and others who reminded her that she could do it and, of course, her parents and sister for all the times they listened to her ramble about whether her hastily-constructed essay outlines made sense.

Ceremony 2

VEDANT MEHRA

North American Business Management
Applied Post-Baccalaureate Diploma

Faculty of Business & Professional Studies

Born and raised in India, Vedant Mehra stepped out of his comfort zone to relocate to Vancouver to pursue a post-baccalaureate diploma from CapU's North American Business Management Applied program. Each day was a fresh learning experience with a vibrant community of classmates and faculty who constantly challenged him to push his limits—each of his achievements served as a motivator and driver towards success. Today at convocation, Vedant walks across the stage with a 4.0 GPA and numerous dean's list recognitions.

In addition to academic success, Vedant's time at CapU was also defined by his engagement in student life which made him feel more at home. Serving as a student housing advisor, he enjoyed interacting with students and empathizing with their unique life experiences. Being nominated as the 'Peer Leader of the Month' for November 2020 was a humbling experience for Vedant, particularly during a pandemic where he learned that everyone can adapt, keep going and grow even through tough times—an important lesson learned at CapU.

As Vedant considers a career move that will enable him to apply his managerial knowledge, his ultimate and broader goal is to meaningfully engage with everyone he meets with the kindness this world needs. While this impact may not generate millions of dollars in earnings, it should bring a million-dollar smile on someone's face.

Ceremony 3

JOSH JOUBERT

Bachelor of Arts with a Major in Psychology and a Minor in Communication Studies

Faculty of Arts & Sciences

When Josh Joubert started at Capilano University, all he really knew was that he wanted to study psychology. However, after nine years at CapU—yes, nine years—Josh graduates with a Bachelor of Arts with a Major in Psychology and a Minor in Communication Studies and is stepping across the convocation stage knowing his path forward.

During his time at CapU, Josh served as a member of the Student Advisory Council for the School of Communication, was a part of the Student Representative Committee for the School of Psychology and maintained a spot on the dean's list for three consecutive terms.

Josh believes the drive and enthusiasm he has today is in large part due to the support, guidance and encouragement he received from his instructors and faculty. In his mind, no other university provides the same connection and compassion between instructors and students. Josh was challenged to be curious and to persevere through difficult times—learning that no matter how many times you fall or experience a setback, getting up and trying again is where the real triumph lies. CapU has changed his life, and now he wants to inspire others the same way his instructors have inspired him.

Following graduation, Josh plans to attend the University of London to earn his master's degree in organizational psychology and has further ambitions to pursue a PhD.

Ceremony 4

ISRAEL LOBO GOMEZ

Bachelor of Communication Studies

Faculty of Business & Professional Studies

Israel Lobo Gomez has made the most of his time at Capilano University. While completing his Bachelor of Communication Studies, he actively participated in and helped with student and community events throughout North Vancouver.

As a student, Israel worked to create a sense of community on the North Vancouver campus. He was involved with the department of athletics & recreation throughout his four years in different roles, including being team manager for the men's basketball team and organizing intramurals for his fellow students. He was a mentor at the Centre for International Experience for three years, while also volunteering in multiple orientations, student tours, information nights and student events.

After graduation, Israel is looking forward to working in the sports/media industry. He currently works with the Fraser Valley Bandits in the department of communications and with the North Vancouver District Public Library as a digital service assistant. His ultimate goal is to be a talk show host. Israel also has dreams of taking his expertise to promote sports and mental health in his home country of Mexico where he can create awareness of the opportunities and build a better future for the generations to come.

Israel credits his family, friends and every single member of the CapU community for helping him find his second home. Israel also credits his dogs: Finnberto, Dempsey and Domino.

STUDENT SPEAKERS

Ceremony 6

VICTORIA BOHL

Bachelor of Tourism Management

Faculty of Global & Community Studies

Victoria Bohl is graduating with a Bachelor of Tourism Management. In her time at CapU, she achieved a cumulative GPA of 4.02 with multiple recognitions on the dean's list and the University's merit list and was president of the Encounter Capilano Club.

One of the accomplishments Victoria is most proud of is the personal growth she's developed at CapU, particularly during her study abroad adventure in Innsbruck, Austria at the beginning of March 2020—just when the COVID-19 pandemic was spreading and the world was put on pause. After a week of relative normalcy, Victoria had to make the difficult decision to either stay in Austria or find a flight home before travel back to Canada was impossible. In that moment, Victoria made the bold choice to carry on with her exchange—separated from her family, friends and everything familiar. While not the experience she imagined, she created community around her and made the most of her incredible stay, complete with a 250 km solo bike ride across Tyrol and a month-long solo backpack around Europe before coming home.

At CapU, Victoria gained confidence, independence and resilience. Though she may not know what exactly the future holds, she knows that CapU has equipped her with a relevant degree under her belt and the passion to take on the world of opportunity out there.

Ceremony 7

ARGEL MONTE DE RAMOS

Bachelor of Performing Arts

Faculty of Fine & Applied Arts

Argel Monte de Ramos is a Filipino Canadian graduate of the Bachelor of Performing Arts program. While at CapU, Argel involved himself in every facet of University life on campus—honing his skills in performing arts and arts administration which included acting, dancing and singing; and working as a student affairs assistant, a student digital ambassador at the Centre for Teaching Excellence, a well-being ambassador, and an outreach assistant at the Capilano Students' Union. He helped students through the pandemic by building a welcoming community where they could find support and adjust to an online university experience.

In addition to being on numerous dean's lists, Argel received the Chancellor's Legacy Award in 2020 and 2021, was awarded the John and Jackie Knill Dreammaker Award in 2020 and earned external recognitions for his work in the arts, including the Jody Taylor-Brian Goble Memorial Music and Fine Arts Scholarship in 2019.

Currently, Argel is a community program assistant at Arts Umbrella and will be working with the Playwrights Theatre Centre to produce theatrical performances with Indigenous, Black and people of colour artists and writers.

Convocation is a momentous milestone as he is the first in his family to graduate from a Canadian post-secondary institution with a bachelor's degree. Celebrating with his family today, Argel is tremendously thankful for their support to provide him with the opportunity to study in Canada and pursue his dreams.

“Teachings come from everywhere when you open yourself to them. That’s the trick of it, really. Open yourself to everything and everything opens itself to you.”

RICHARD WAGAMESE

ANISHINAABE (OJIBWE) NOVELIST, JOURNALIST AND MENTOR
(1955–2017)

HONORARY DEGREE

CARLOTA LEE

Doctor of Letters, honoris causa

Carlota Lee is an athlete, mother, event organizer and community supporter. Persistent, organized and never one to do anything half-measure, Carlota is an athletic ambassador, community leader and health research advocate.

As chair of the Odlum Brown Vancouver Open, Carlota oversees one of North America's most accomplished and skilled tennis tournament teams, and has earned recognition from sponsors, players and fans. For over a decade, her management of the Pro-Am fundraiser, players' social and the North Shore billeting program has been integral to the success of the Odlum Brown Vancouver Open. A tireless ambassador for tennis, Carlota's experience as a former chartered accountant, strong business and community relationships, ability to communicate in Spanish, French, Italian and Cantonese, and her first-hand experience with the world's greatest professional tournaments ensures the VanOpen is one of the most respected and enjoyed tournaments.

Carlota is also an avid marathon runner—an experience that led to her recognizing a significant problem when she began losing her balance during training. Carlota was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease in 2019 and has since shifted her community involvement to include advocacy and fundraising for Parkinson's research, supporting others while fighting her own battle with the disease.

As co-chair with Derek Lee of the capital campaign for the Centre for Childhood Studies at Capilano University, Carlota was instrumental in building a donor community committed to strengthening society through exceptional, accessible child care and early childhood education.

FACULTY EMERITUS

LEONARD GEORGE, PhD

Faculty Emeritus

Leonard George is a psychologist, writer, educator and broadcaster. After earning his doctorate at the University of Western Ontario, he worked for 19 years in a variety of clinical settings, specializing in assessing and treating psychotic disorders, seizure disorders, acute and chronic pain, and traumas such as severe burns and animal maulings.

He then worked at Capilano University for 15 years in the psychology and music therapy departments, where he taught a range of courses including those that he developed himself. Leonard was chair of the psychology department and chair of the School of Social Sciences, leading through uncertainty, change and new developments with dedication, grace and optimism.

Twelve years ago, he launched Capilano Universe, a gift of ongoing education and community-building with public libraries and an enterprise that is still strong today.

Leonard has authored two books and dozens of chapters and articles on a range of topics and is co-editing the forthcoming text, Explorations in Music and Esotericism. He has given lectures and seminars around the globe; most recently, he presented online workshops and lectures through the Open Center in New York on topics of esotericism, the soul and ancient healing around the world in the context of psychology and history.

Today, Leonard continues his pursuit of passion and search for adventure which has brought him to Ontario's Niagara region, where he is beginning the next chapter of his life.

OUR TRADITIONS

THE COAT OF ARMS

Supporters

A bear in blue with light blue wings is depicted on each side of the shield. Each bear stands on a rocky base.

In local First Nations cultures, bears are symbols of strength and are a link between the natural and supernatural realms. In medieval bestiaries, bears were said to give shape to their own young; therefore, bears represent the 'forming' of the young—a metaphor for education. The wings refer to the idea of aspiration and can allude to ravens, recognized for their intelligence and creativity by local Indigenous Peoples. The rocky base refers to the nearby Coast Mountains, which are a dramatic aspect of the local landscape.

Crest

Two books with blue binding and white pages are stacked with their bottom edges visible. On either side are several maple leaves and dogwood flowers, all in white. This is set on a wreath of twisted cloth in white, light blue and blue.

The books are a traditional symbol of education and the arrangement is inspired by the corporate emblem used when we were Capilano College. The maple leaves and dogwood flowers make reference to the fact that the University is located in British Columbia, Canada.

Arms

The main part of the shield is white and frames the image of a salmon. Salmon are an important feature of local wildlife and is shown here in the artistic style of Coast Salish Peoples. The waves at the bottom of the shield indicate the University's location near the Pacific Ocean and the top section represents the nearby Coast Mountains.

MACE

The mace depicts the authority vested in the University to grant degrees, and also incorporates the history and tradition that surrounds both the territory near our regional campuses and the vision of Capilano University.

The mace's design portrays the unique territorial qualities of our region, which extends from Deep Cove to Mt. Currie to Earl's Cove on the Sunshine Coast.

These qualities include reference to the animal world, to the landscape, to directional symbolism and to the human element.

The mace is carved from yew, which is a natural wood found in our region. The mace was carved by Xwalacktun (Rick) Harry, a Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation artist whose works are recognized internationally.

Responsibilities for bearing the mace originated in the office of the Bedellus or Beadle and date back to the University of Glasgow, which was founded in 1451.

The function of the Bedellus was to keep the students in order and, on the days of public functions, they arranged the seats for dignitaries.

The duties of the Bedellus have varied greatly over the centuries. In the 17th and 18th centuries, the incumbent was required to regulate bonfire settings and purchase university supplies.

Officially, the Bedellus is responsible for administration of the university's facilities. The most prominent role of the Bedellus was, and continues to be on ceremonial occasions, leading the academic procession and carrying the university mace.

Our ceremonial mace will be carried by Stephen Williams, vice-chair of the Capilano University Senate.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners suspended on a crossbar. They are one of the traditional components of academic ceremonies that lend colour and dignity to processions and stages. At Capilano University, gonfalons are used in the Convocation ceremonies and represent each of the University's five faculties: Faculty of Arts & Sciences (teal), Faculty of Business & Professional Studies (dark blue), Faculty of Education, Health & Human Development (orange), Faculty of Fine & Applied Arts (red) and Faculty of Global & Community Studies (light green).

LEGACY CANOE

In celebration of our 50th anniversary in 2018, CapU commissioned Squamish Nation master carver Ses siyam (Ray Natraoro) to build a traditional Coast Salish canoe as a legacy for future generations and a symbol of the University's commitment to Truth and Reconciliation.

The 30-foot-long seaworthy canoe, named Skw'cháys in the Squamish Nation language, was carved at the North Vancouver campus in the winter of 2019, giving students, employees and the community the unique opportunity to witness the transformation from tree to canoe, and learn first-hand about Coast Salish traditions and culture.

Capilano University is on a pathway of learning how to be a responsible Canoe Family, and how to honour its ongoing relationship with Skw'cháys.

REGALIA

The chancellor and vice-chancellor robes are based on traditional academic ceremonial gowns. Capilano University's chancellor's gown is black brocade with a woven dogwood flower motif, trimmed in gold brocade and edged with royal blue silk trim.

The dogwood is British Columbia's official flower. The four gold bands on both the upper and lower gothic sleeves represent CapU's four-decade history as a college before becoming a university.

The vice-chancellor's robes are in the same black brocade with the dogwood motif, trimmed in silver brocade and edged with royal blue silk.

The robes were designed by Jane Still from CapU's Costuming for Stage and Screen program in the School of Motion Picture Arts. They were built by Deborah Gyug, a master of costume construction.

HOW CAPILANO UNIVERSITY GOT ITS NAME

In 1968, residents of the North Shore submitted names for the newly formed regional college operating on the grounds of West Vancouver Secondary School. The name Capilano honours Sa7plek (Chief Joe Capilano), a well-known Coast Salish carver, a spokesperson on history and culture, and an advocate for education.

Born in 1850, Sa7plek was a respected leader and chief of the Skw'xwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation. Skw'xwú7mesh is a reference to 'people of the sacred water,' as the Squamish River was well-known for its curative qualities. Capilano University's North Vancouver campus sits on Skw'xwú7mesh territory, which encompasses parts of the Lower Mainland and Sea-to-Sky Corridor.

In 1906, Sa7plek led a delegation of chiefs to England, with the intention of meeting with King Edward VII. While there, he was introduced to Canadian poet Pauline Johnson. They became good friends and after she moved to B.C.'s West Coast, Sa7plek shared his legends, which she later recounted in her books and poetry.

Capilano University was named after Sa7plek (Chief Joe Capilano) of the Skw'xwú7mesh (Squamish) Nation. Photo (taken in 1906) courtesy of the North Vancouver Museum and Archives.
