Division	School of Motion Picture Arts
Course Name	MOPA 304– Screenwriting III	Credits: 3
Instructor	x@capilanou.ca	604.986.1911 local xxx

VISION STATEMENT

The School of Motion Picture Arts is dedicated to inspiring a new generation of independent Canadian filmmakers through the fostering and mentoring of emerging talent utilizing progressive learning environments and authentic production experiences, such that graduates make valued contributions to the global media culture.

COURSE FORMAT

Four lecture hours per week, for 15 weeks.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

28.5 credits of 200 level MOPA.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

General

Students will be provided with practical opportunities to explore and develop techniques of visual storytelling, narrative judgment, and personal voice. Each student writes and directs their own short film and takes key creative and technical roles on films made by their classmates. Each student will also write a short screenplay to be considered for production in MOPA 310 in the Spring semester.

Instructional

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Write a short screenplay from beat sheet to final draft.
- Understand the demands of narrative drama on the level of beat, scene, sequence, and story.
- Develop active, complex characters and write effective dialogue.
- Read critically the work of others and provide constructive feedback (story editing) within a workshop environment.
- Clearly and effectively articulate their story ideas through oral and written pitches for industry professionals.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
Program Mission

OPERATIONAL DETAILS:

Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grade), Student Conduct, Cheating and Plagiarism, Academic Probation and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.

ATTENDANCE:

Attendance will be taken daily and will form part of the final grade (See Evaluation Profile). When students are absent from class/production, their professionalism grade will be affected. Crew time sheets will be filled out each day during production. Lateness or unexplained absences will affect professionalism grade. Additionally, where lateness or unexplained absence prevents student from executing their designated crew responsibilities, term grade for that specific role will be impacted as well – up to and including overall course failure for substantially incomplete work.

PUNCTUALITY:

Punctuality is essential and forms part of the participation grade.

LATENESS:
All student work must be performed at the place and time authorized by the instructor. Lateness will only be accepted if prior approval for lateness has been given by the instructor.
CHEATING/PLAGIARISM:
Plagiarism is the presentation of another person’s work or ideas as if they were one’s own. Plagiarism is both dishonest and a rejection of the principles of scholarship. All students should familiarize themselves with the University Policy on Cheating and Plagiarism (See the University Website) as such behaviour can result in suspension from the University.
INCOMPLETE GRADES:
Grades of Incomplete “I” will be granted only if there is a valid reason for extending the evaluation deadline and if students have a reasonable chance of improving their grade to pass the course.
ENGLISH USAGE:
All written work submitted must use good academic English and follow the guidelines provided in the Capilano University Guide to Writing Assignments (available from the University Bookstore). It is the responsibility of students to proof-read all their writing for any grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors.
STUDIO/FILMING DISCIPLINE:
Students must be dressed appropriately. Wet and cold weather requires waterproof and warm clothing. Students are required to wear work clothes for technical and production sessions. Clothing may be subjected to dirt, paint and dust. Sturdy shoes are a must. No food or beverages are allowed on set during production activities and during technical classes.
COMPUTER COURSE REQUIREMENTS/RESPONSIBILITIES:
You are expected to abide by the Statement of Appropriate Use of Information Technology Facilities and Services in any use of computers at the University. This statement can be obtained from your department, the Library, Computer Services or on the University website.
ELECTRONIC DEVICES/LAPTOPS:
Use of electronic devices is not allowed during class time, except at the discretion of the instructor.
COMPUTER LAB USAGE:
No food or beverages are allowed in the University’s computer labs at any time. Students must not abuse internet privileges by visiting inappropriate or illegal websites. Intentionally opening and/or altering other students’ projects will not be tolerated. Respect for other students’ work is of utmost importance. Offences regarding the above will result in the “0” mark in the participation grade, and restricted access to facilities.
PARTICIPATION/PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOUR:
Students are expected to demonstrate a professional attitude and behaviour towards their work, fellow-students, and their instructor. Students should demonstrate reliability, respect for and co-operation with colleagues. A willingness to work calmly and courteously under difficult conditions as well as a determination to achieve first-class work while meeting deadlines is necessary in this course. Students should have respect for equipment and systems, and a constructive response to criticism.
EMERGENCY PROCEDURES:
Students should familiarize themselves with emergency procedures posted in the classroom.
