BECOME A VISUAL STORYTELLER

Films have the power to transport people out of their daily lives with escapist excitement, inspire us with visual effects and production design and spur social change with compelling narratives. At Capilano University's School of Motion Picture Arts, you'll learn how to tell stories that evoke emotions and change lives.

WORK LIKE THE PROS

You'll be working on sets and in studios to create films, costumes and animations, learning under the helpful guidance of instructors whose experience and connections in B.C.'s film industry will help you develop the skills you need to thrive.

QUALITY FACILITIES & EQUIPMENT

Gain practical skills along with theoretical training at CapU's state-of-the-art Bosa Centre for Film and Animation. You'll have access to 4K and 3D cameras, sound recording and mixing suites, an 8,000 square foot sound stage, editing labs, visual effects, animation and costuming studios, as well as advanced camera equipment and software.
