FOOD SERVICES INFORMATION

- Concession service is subject to staffing availability and not guaranteed. We will do our best to provide service for your event.
- No concession services will be provided for events that do not have an intermission.
- Alcohol is not permitted to be sold or served by anyone other than The BlueShore at Cap staff.

Outside food and drink are not permitted for any BlueShore events.

- Should you require on-site catering, Chartwells is Capilano University's food services provider and have the first right of refusal for catering all events on campus at which food is served.
 - You may submit your request to capilanou.catering@compass-canada.com including the date, number of people, and the types of food you are planning to provide. It is advisable to mention if you are a not-for-profit or community group and that your event is taking place at the BlueShore Financial Centre for the Performing Arts.
 - Chartwells will decide on a case-by-case basis whether they wish to cater the event or not. If they choose not to, you may bring in your own food at the discretion and approval of the BlueShore General Manager if provided with at least 4-weeks notice.

VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

- You must have a minimum of 4 volunteers serving as ushers inside the theatre during the event.
- Volunteer ushers are seated in assigned seats and must be available for the duration of the event to seat and re-seat audience members safely.
- Volunteers may not perform multiple roles—they cannot go backstage or assist on stage—they must be prepared to work as an usher for the entire performance.
- In the case of an emergency, volunteer ushers are also required to assist BlueShore staff in the safe evacuation of audience members. Emergency evacuation procedures will be reviewed by the Front of House Manager with your volunteers on the day of your event.
- A MANDATORY briefing on roles and responsibilities for volunteer ushers will take place one hour prior to the start of your event.

How many volunteers do you have scheduled for your event?

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

Please provide the following preliminary information. The BlueShore Technical Supervisor will contact you to review all technical requests. Staffing levels for your event are determined by the BlueShore Technical Supervisor and General Manager and based on event requirements.

BlueShore staff schedule and guidelines:

- Prior to accessing the stage technicians will be scheduled 30-60 minutes in advance to have time to set-up equipment, unlock rooms, and prepare the venue and stage.
- As per our collective agreement, after 5 hours, a 30-minute break must occur. Clients must CLEAR/EXIT the stage and theatre or incur a meal break penalty.
- Following your event, the technical staff will perform a venue check with a representative from your organization to ensure dressing rooms and any additional spaces utilized are left in acceptable condition.
- The technicians call time ends after this check has been performed, all equipment has been put away securely, and stage and theatre have been cleared.
- Overtime rate for all BlueShore staff begins after 7 hours.
